Gentlemen:

I am in possession of three peace medals in which you may be interested in purchasing, described as follows.

(1) Washington Medal, Silver hand engraved, oval, about 5 inches long and 4 inches wide, Presented to Kesis a Potowatomi indian chief at Vincennes Ind. in 1792.

(2) President Madison Medal, Stamped, Silver, 1802

(3) George the 3rd, Medal, Stamped Silver,

If you are interested in the purchasing of these or any of them wish you would please advise ,

Yours Truly,

Don Wm Beckwith

Dear Sir:

Your Indian Peace medals may very likely interest us. We have several of the official engraved Washington medals, both 1792 and 1793. We are looking especially for one of 1795. As there are many varieties of the 1792 medal we cannot tell whether we would want it or not. There are also many varieties of the George III medal and we could not tell whether we would want this one or not. The Madison medal we have. Could you not send these on to us so that we could examine them. Also, if you have any idea what you want for them we wish you would state your price. If you do send these on you might as well include the Madison as we would like to see it anyhow.

Very truly yours,

HW:JG
